Immortals – Clayton Tremlett

27 April–11 June 2023

A Portrait Study of Digger Memorials in the State of Victoria.

Immortals is a comparative study of World War I ANZAC Digger Memorials by Central Victorian artist, Clayton Tremlett. The artist has documented just the facial features of each monument and presents them as a series of 54 silkscreen prints. The exhibition also provides audiences with the opportunity to focus on the Maryborough Memorial created by Victoria's first professional woman sculptor, Margaret Baskerville (1861–1930).
